
Registration is now open (see above link) for the 2013 National Elder Abuse Symposium! More information COMING SOON! regarding agenda, exhibitors, and speaker lists!

In the meantime here is the general information for the conference:

This 3½-day seminar is designed for prosecutors, investigators, law enforcement, adult protective services administrators and case workers, state and local agency personnel, medical professionals, coroners and medical examiners, and victim advocates. The symposium will provide information on how to identify, investigate, and prosecute cases involving elder and dependant adult abuse. While serving as an introduction to those new in the field, this symposium will also address the latest issues and techniques in elder abuse prosecution. We have a really great line-up this year with some exciting new topics and speakers!!

TUITION INFORMATION
Paid tuition received (or postmarked) by November 19, 2013, will qualify for the early registration rate of $300. All registrations received after this date will be at the regular registration rate of $340. Cancellations must be received in writing by November 19, 2013, to avoid the $40 administrative cancellation fee. See the General Registration Information page for full cancellation and registration policies.

HOTEL INFORMATION
The Hyatt Regency Orange County – Anaheim, CA is located at 11999 Harbor Blvd in Garden Grove, CA. Home to Disneyland, CA! To receive the special CDAA room rate of $109 single/double occupancy (plus hotel tax), call the hotel at (714) 750-1234 and mention CDAA National Elder Abuse Symposium. Although the cut-off date for hotel reservations is November 11, 2013, make your reservation as soon as possible as rooms may sell out before the deadline.
